

Have your say on the future development of the district

Our Local Plan Sites Consultation

Friday 4 November to Friday 30 December

Please note: Surrey County Council Library service will be carrying out a refurbishment of the Caterham Valley Library. To accommodate these works, the library will be closing from 5pm, 10th December 2016, and reopening at 9:30am 3rd January 2017.

To ensure that interested parties continue to have access to the documents which form the Local Plan Consultation, the Council will be placing copies at the East Surrey Museum from 10th December for the remainder of the consultation period. Information regarding opening dates and times are set out below, along with other locations where documents can be viewed. Thank you for your continued interest in the Local Plan process.
